

IBEC Universities at a glance

IB educator certificates (IBEC) are IB credentials that demonstrate that you are prepared to teach and lead at an IB World School. Building upon IB professional learning resources and workshops, this university-level offering is earned through completion of IB-recognized undergraduate, graduate, or postgraduate teaching or educational leadership degrees. Learn more at ibo.org/professional-certificates.

There are four types of IB educator certificates:

Teaching and learning certificates

IB certificate in teaching and learning

For pre-service, new and experienced IB educators

Programme-specific curriculum studies

- Primary Years Programme
- Middle Years Programme
- Diploma Programme
- Career-related Programme

IB advanced certificate in teaching and learning research

For experienced IB educators

Non programme-specific studies linking theory to practice and research

Leadership certificates

IB certificate in leadership practice

For IB coordinators and aspiring school leaders

Examine relationships, behaviors and organizations that support learning

IB advanced certificate in leadership research

For experienced leaders

Examine contemporary leadership issues and research practice

IBEC certificates are currently offered at 60+ institutions across 17 countries. Explore below to find a university program that fits your goals and interests.
